

ATTENTION CUB SCOUT LEADERS

Are you a Cubmaster? Assistant Cubmaster? Den Leader? Adult Helper? Not BALOO Trained?

WE HAVE THE TRAINING FOR YOU!!!

WELCOME TO

Cub Leader Adventure Weekend

What is CLAW?

CLAW stands for Cub Leader Adventure Weekend. CLAW is a one weekend training event like no other. Here you get Den Leader Specifics, Cubmaster Specifics, BALOO, and all the training you will need as you progress in Cub Scouting as an Adult Leader.

When and where is the Training?

Friday September 20- 22, 2019 at Camp Gorton

What will I be learning?

Friday night is dedicated to Cub Scout Den Leader Specific and Cubmaster Specific. On Saturday, get ready for a wild day of CLAW Training as you embark on becoming BALOO Certified. Learn outdoor skills and knowledge you take back to your units and are NOW CERTIFIED to take Cub Scouts on overnight adventures. On Sunday, an amazing breakfast and closing graduation.

What if I am currently Specific Trained?

If you have completed the specific training for your position, you may join us on Saturday morning for the BALOO portion of the weekend. You may still arrive Friday night for an additional fee.

How much does it cost?

CLAW weekend with specifics training is $35.00. This covers the cost of camp fees, training materials, patch, food, and supplies.

If you register BEFORE Sunday September 1, 2019 there is a $10.00 early bird discount.

I'm IN!! How do I register?

Visit www.fiverivers.org/training to register. All registrations will be taken on-line

Who do I contact with Questions?

David Sullivan, Vice President of District Operations (607)331-7890

Ross Willmot, Staff Advisor (570)423-9326

