

2019 NRA BASIC RIFLE & SHOTGUN TRAINING COURSE AND CUB SCOUT SHOOTING DIRECTOR TRAINING FOR DAY CAMPS AND FAMILY CAMP

Hosted & Conducted by the FRC Shooting Sports Committee

Who can attend one or both of these training courses?

1. Any adult interested in becoming an NRA Instructor & Rifle Merit Badge Counselor.
2. Any adult interested in supporting a Council Day Camp or Family Camp program as a Cub Scout Shooting Director.

{You'll also automatically become a member of the Council Shooting Sports Committee.}

What's involved in becoming certified in NRA Basics or Cub Scout Shooting Director?

1. The first step of any NRA training is NRA Basics, which is a 2-part training. The first is the NRA classroom portion and second is a specific discipline in rifle & shotgun. {After this, the NRA Instructors Course is $75.00 for the 1st discipline & $50 for the 2nd discipline. Interest in the course will be determined by the attendees at the basic course!}

Basic training starts in a classroom environment and will be held at the University of Scouting in late February. The rifle or shotgun specific discipline training will be held on a Saturday at Camp Gorton.

2. To become a Cub Scout Shooting Director, everyone must complete a ½ day training that is specific ONLY to the Cub Scout Shooting Programs and will be held at Camp Gorton.

{ANY Day Camp or Family Camp program that includes a shooting activity MUST have a certified director or the program will not be approved by the Shooting Sports Committee.}

When are the training dates?

1. The NRA Basic Training will be on Feb. 23rd at the University of Scouting held at the Corning Middle School. Registration and payment will be through the University of Scouting's process.

NRA Discipline Specific Training for rifle & shotgun will be held on Saturday, March 31st at Camp Gorton and is a ½ day training course. See below for time. Requirements will be discussed at the U. of S. class session in February.

2. The ½ day training for Cub Scout Shooting Director has 2 dates. Individuals MUST complete one of the two scheduled trainings for certification. There are ONLY two dates for this training, which are:

Sunday March 31 st	1 - 5 pm Camp Gorton	Check In @ HQ Building
Sunday May 19 th	1 - 5 pm Camp Gorton	Check In @ HQ Building

What is the cost for these trainings and How to register?

1. The NRA Basic and Discipline Specific Training cost for rifle & shotgun is $80.00 per person. Payment is through the University of Scouting registration process. NOTE: There is a Pre-Registration Deadline!
2. The Cub Scout Shooting Director Training is just $10.00 per person. Registration is through either a Day Camp Director, Day Camp Program Director, Family Camp Director or the Day Camp/Family Camp Staff Advisor. Payment is On-Site!
